IBPS Clerk Exam 2024 - An Overview

The IBPS Clerk Exam 2024 selection process consists of two key stages: the Preliminary Exam and the Mains Exam. The Preliminary Exam, which is an objective-based online test, consists of three sections: English Language, Numerical Ability, and Reasoning Ability—totaling 100 questions for 100 marks. Candidates have 60 minutes to complete this exam, with each correct answer awarded 1 mark and 1/4 of the assigned mark deducted for each incorrect answer.

To qualify for the Mains Exam, candidates must first pass the Preliminary Exam. The Mains Exam features 190 questions spread across multiple sections and is allocated 160 minutes. This test is also objective-based, with a maximum of 200 marks and a similar penalty of 1/4 of the assigned mark for incorrect answers. Both exams are conducted online, and securing a high score in the Preliminary Exam is essential to advance to the Mains Exam.
